Technology

- Laid out in many lines and kept President Lincoln “in the loop” of general’s designs
- Attempted to give the South a squeeze, and no supplies would be arriving with ease
- Producing the most brilliant General graduates was no accident

Union

- Radical Republicans didn’t like this new President, when trying to impeach him they were not hesitant
- After Antietam, didn’t pursue Lee; thus he was relieved of duty
- A Democrat wanting peace and didn’t care about bringing slavery to it’s knees

Confederate

- At Fredericksburg and Antietam is where Lee most needed him
- His amazing battle tactics are stuff of trivia, remained loyal to his native Virginia
- A skilled tactician and killer that later became a KKK wizard

Battles

- Featured “Pickett’s Charge” but Lee had to make an Independence Day discharge
- A Confederate victory in the first major battle made people realize the War was no minor grapple
- The Mississippi River saw the North lay out their wrath, now the South is split in half

Places/Events

- A new place is born like a baby after Pennsylvania abolishes slavery
- Rioting and unrest dominated this place, so Lincoln gave them martial law to save face
- Under constant attack, this place brought much needed resources for the South to fight back
