

Goods and Products: Coming and Going

After completing the chart, use maps to help you determine how each of the following goods/products should move from Georgia to international markets and from international markets to Georgia.

1. Coca-Cola:

500,000 crates of 2liter bottles of Classic Coke
From Marietta, GA to Singapore
Transportation systems used in order of use:

2. Empty crates:

100,000 hard sided, will not bend, fold, or stack in each other.
From manufacturing factory in Bainbridge, GA to Bath, Maine
Transportation systems used in order of use:

3. Seafood:

3 picnic size coolers packed with fresh caught GA catfish.
From Warm Springs, GA to London, England.
Transportation systems used in order of use:

4. Olives:

100,000 crates from Sienna, Italy to Homerville, GA.
Transportation systems used in order of use:

5. Fabric:

5 bolts of Tartan plaids from Edinburg, Scotland to Atlanta, GA.
Transportation systems used in order of use:

6. Building materials:

6,6000 sheets of sheet rock
From Home Depot in Tifton, GA to Moscow, Russia
Transportation systems used in order of use:

7. Mail

50 letters from Sapalo Island, Georgia to Sierra Leone, Africa.
Transportation systems used in order of use:

8. Coal:

10,000 lbs.
From Appalachian Plateau of GA to Copenhagen, Denmark.
Transportation systems used in order of use: