

|  |  |   |
|--|--|---|
| The three men who sought to push business and industry as the way of the "New South" were known as the _____.                                     | Name the Bourbon Redeemers/Triumvirate.   | Give two examples of jobs and/or positions that the Bourbon Redeemers/Triumvirate held in the 1800's.  |
| This political party established its dominance in the South following Reconstruction.   | This Atlanta Constitution editor was known as the "voice of the New South."                     | Henry Grady wrote articles encouraging what in Georgia?  |
| Atlanta hosted a few of these in the late 1800's to attract business investors to the city.   | Name two reasons farmers suffered from the new emphasis on business/industry in Georgia.        | What is the group that farmers formed to help each other with expenses?  |
| One of the main issues facing farmers during this time period was the cost of mail delivery. Farmers fought for _____ to make mail costs cheaper. | What is the political party that farmers in the South formed to promote their interests?        | This man became a House Representative and leader of the Populist party.   |
| This person became the first woman to be a U.S. Senator after the death of Tom Watson in office.  | After Reconstruction, African-Americans in the South were disenfranchised. What does this mean? | By being intimidated and even killed for attempting to vote or participate in government, what constitutional right was being denied to African-Americans? |
| In 1906, this GA governor promoted laws taking away the ability to vote from African-Americans.   | What was the initial cause of the 1906 Atlanta Race Riot?                                       | The nickname given to laws in southern states that segregated public and places is _____.  |
| This man challenged segregation laws in Louisiana when he was arrested for sitting in a whites only section of a train car.                       | What was Plessy's argument to the Supreme Court?  | Summarize the Supreme Court's decision in the Plessy v. Ferguson case.   |

|  |   |   |
|--|---|---|
| This law required voters in Georgia to pay a tax before voting.   | This law required voters to show that they could read before being allowed to vote.                | How did voter registration times inconvenience sharecroppers (and most African-Americans) during this time period?               |
| Name two tactics which the KKK would use to keep African-Americans from voting.   | During an election, what is the "primary"?   | Why were African-Americans able to be successfully kept from participating in the Democratic primaries?                          |
| Name the two main African-American leaders during the New South time period fighting for rights.  | Booker T. Washington believed that African Americans should focus on this to achieve equality.     | Booker T. gave a speech at the 1895 _____ and said he was in favor of _____ and hard work/education.                             |
| Booker T. Washington founded this school in Alabama to promote job training for African Americans.  | W.E.B. Dubois disagreed with Washington and called for African-Americans to fight for their _____. | Dubois co-founded this organization that challenged Jim Crow laws in the south through legal means.                              |
| This event discredited Booker T. Washington's beliefs in favor of Dubois'.  | Name three examples of places that would have been legally segregated in the Jim Crow era South.   | Name two accomplishments of Atlanta resident John Hope in the New South era.   |
| What did John Hope's wife, Lugenia Burns Hope, establish to help the African-American community in Atlanta?   | What was the purpose of the Neighborhood Union in Atlanta?   | This Atlanta barber was born a slave but rose up to become a real estate buyer and Atlanta's first African American millionaire. |
| Alonzo Herndon's very successful insurance company was a first of its kind in Atlanta for African Americans and is still open for business today. What is its name? |   |   |